

How to Negotiate Successfully? (INT – 6.8)

PART 1 – WARM-UP & VOCABULARY

Introduction

Negotiation is a skill we use almost every day.

We negotiate:

salaries	prices	deadlines
business deals	family decisions	even where to eat with friends

Good negotiators don't always get everything they want.

Instead, they find solutions that benefit both sides.

Today's question is: How can you negotiate successfully?

Warm-up Questions

1. Have you ever negotiated a price?
 2. Do you enjoy negotiating?
 3. What makes negotiation difficult?
 4. Is negotiating common in Vietnam?
 5. Have you ever accepted a bad deal because you were afraid to negotiate?
 6. Is negotiation a useful career skill?
 7. Can negotiation improve relationships?
-

PART 2 – KEYS TO SUCCESSFUL NEGOTIATION

Tip 1 – Prepare Before You Negotiate Good negotiators prepare. Ask yourself: • What do I want? • What is my minimum acceptable result? • What does the other person want? • What can I offer? Preparation builds confidence.	Tip 2 – Listen More Than You Speak Many people try to win by talking more. Great negotiators ask questions. Examples: • Why is this important to you? • What concerns do you have? • Can you explain your situation? Listening helps you understand the other person's needs.	Tip 3 – Look for a Win-Win Solution Bad negotiation: "I must win." Good negotiation: "How can both of us benefit?" Long-term relationships are often more valuable than winning one argument.
---	---	---

Discussion Questions

1. Why is preparation important?
 2. Why do people fail in negotiations?
 3. Is listening more important than speaking?
 4. What is a win-win solution?
 5. Is compromise always necessary?
 6. When should you walk away from a negotiation?
-

PART 3 – NEGOTIATION STRATEGIES

Tip 4 – Stay Calm Never negotiate when you are angry. Stay polite. Stay respectful. People are more willing to cooperate with calm speakers.	Tip 5 – Explain Value, Not Just Price Imagine you're selling a laptop. Don't only say: "It costs $800." Instead say: "It has a fast processor, long battery life, and a three-year warranty." People buy value, not only price.	Tip 6 – Don't Accept the First Offer Too Quickly Sometimes the first offer isn't the best. Ask politely. Examples: • Is there any flexibility? • Could you offer a better price? • Is there another option?	Tip 7 – Know When to Stop Not every negotiation ends with an agreement. Sometimes walking away is the smartest decision. A bad agreement can be worse than no agreement.
---	---	---	--

Discussion Questions

7. Should you always negotiate a salary?
8. Why do some people dislike negotiating?
9. Is honesty important in negotiation?
10. Can negotiation be learned?
11. Should friendships and business be negotiated differently?
12. Have you ever regretted not negotiating?
13. What negotiation mistakes do beginners make?
14. Should companies negotiate with employees more often?
15. Is negotiation easier online or face-to-face?

PART 4 – ROLE PLAY, DEBATE & SPEAKING CHALLENGE

Role Play 1 – Salary Negotiation Student A: You are the employer. Student B: You want a higher salary. Try to reach an agreement.	Role Play 2 – Buying a Used Motorcycle Seller: Price: $2,000 Buyer: Try to negotiate a better deal. Both sides should explain their reasons.	Role Play 3 – Project Deadline Manager: The project must finish this Friday. Employee: You need three more days. Negotiate a solution.
---	---	--

Mini Debate

Team A: Good negotiation means both sides should be satisfied.	Team B: The goal of negotiation is to get the best deal for yourself.
---	--

Final Reflection

Discuss with your partner.

1. What makes someone a good negotiator?
2. Why do emotions sometimes ruin negotiations?
3. Which negotiation skill do you need to improve?
4. Is negotiation more important in business or everyday life?
5. What is the biggest lesson you learned from today's discussion?